CAUSE OF DEATH: In plain terms, so that any physician may understand it clearly. Indicate mode of dying, as well as disease or other cause. Name of disease alone is insufficient. If from accident, violence, or casualty, state the nature of accident or injury, and whether it was the result of accident, suicide, or homicide. Also state the contributory (secondary) cause, if any, which aggravated the principal cause. Be particular and specific in all cases, and especially in those arising during parturition, abortion, or childbirth. Always state whether a woman was pregnant or recently delivered, and if so, how long before death. The above information is required for the correct classification of causes of death. See instructions on back of certificate.

State CAUSE OF DEATH very carefully and in full. Do not use abbreviations or indefinite terms. Name disease causing death, not mode of dying. Do not state "Heart Failure," "Asthenia," "Senility," "Old Age," or "Unknown" without adding the primary cause. If from violence, state the nature of injury and whether accidental, suicidal or homicidal. If from accident, state whether it occurred in mine, factory, railroad, etc. If woman, state whether death occurred during pregnancy, labor or childbed. If infant, state whether premature or full term, and number of hours or days lived. This information is very important. See instructions on back of certificate.
